

Eleanor Kitzman appointed Insurance Commissioner

“Eleanor Kitzman appears to be uniquely qualified to serve as Texas insurance commissioner. Her experience in running the insurance commission in South Carolina as well as representing insurers and managing insurance companies should give her a jump start in assessing the Texas marketplace. We look forward to building a good working relationship and offering our support for Commissioner Kitzman as she tackles one of the toughest jobs in Texas government.”

Mark Hanna
Insurance Council of Texas